WILLIS

Announces He Will Be Candidate for Second Term As Governor

AND NOT THE PRESIDENCY

Former U. S. Senator Burton Wants Support

OF THE ADMINISTRATION

For His Boom But This is Not Yet Promised As Other Ohio Men Notably Myron T. Herrick and Senator Warren G. Harding Are Not Dodging the Presidential Lightning.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, Nov. 8.—Political aspirations of a number of Republican leaders were thrown into the melting pot today as a result of the announcement of Governor Willis yesterday that he will not seek the Republican presidential nomination, but will be a candidate for re-election as governor.

Senator Burton hastened to the governor's office early this morning for a long conference with Mr. Willis, the object of which was reported to be an attempt to secure the governor's endorsement of the Burton boom for the Republican presidential nomination. It was explained at the governor's office, however, that this support would be withheld, pending the development of prospects for other Ohio men, who have been discussed for the presidency. Senator Harding and Myron T. Herrick, former governor and ambassador to France, were specifically mentioned.

Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold, who previously had announced his candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination today, declined to comment on his future plans, in the light of the Willis announcement.

"Are you still standing on your former intention to run for the governorship nomination?" he was asked. "I don't want to talk until I see some Republican leaders," he replied. Former Congressman Ralph D. Cole, who had been mentioned as a probable seeker after the Republican nomination for the chief executive's office, also was silent today, but it was reported he might go after the position of United States senator, to succeed Senator Pomeroy. This nomination also may be sought by Lawrence K. Langdon, now Republican member of the public utilities commission.

Democratic leaders today said they were pleased that Republican plans had begun to crystallize. They declared they would welcome a campaign with Governor Willis seeking re-election.

BURTON CONFERS

With State Republican Leaders Regarding Presidential Candidacy.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, Nov. 8.—Announcement of former Senator Theodore E. Burton's candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination was looked for here today by his friends, following a series of informal conferences which he held with Republican state leaders.

Governor Willis' statement, made last night, that he would not seek presidential honors, but would be a candidate for re-election as governor, gave a big impetus to Mr. Burton's decision, those associated with him said.

Following a conference with Governor Willis in the governor's private office for more than an hour this morning, Mr. Burton made engagements to talk with a half dozen Republican leaders later in the day for the purpose of smoothing out the political situation in Ohio. These conferences included Senator Warren G. Harding.

Political observers pointed out as significant the fact that Charles F. Dick, of Akron, an avowed candidate. (Continued on Page 10 Col. 5.)

REGRET

EXPRESSED BY GERMANS THAT BRAND WHITLOCK IS TO LEAVE BELGIUM.

American Minister Will Leave Amsterdam Wednesday on Vacation, Due to Ill Health.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Nov. 8.—Secretary Lansing announced today that the German military authorities in Belgium had expressed to American Minister Brand Whitlock their regrets that published reports should have made it appear he was leaving Belgium as a result of objections from the German government.

Minister Whitlock was assured that the German authorities regretted his departure. Secretary Lansing added that no official communications of any sort had passed between the Berlin and Washington governments respecting Whitlock's status. Mr. Whitlock will sail from Amsterdam on Wednesday of this week, for a vacation due to ill health.

FRED HAMPSHIRE LOST LEFT EYE WHILE HUNTING

Fred Hampshire, aged 48, and residing in Mill street, lost his left eye today as the result of a hunting accident on Saturday afternoon. The operation for the removal of the eye was performed by Dr. D. J. Price on Sunday at the City Hospital.

Mr. Hampshire in company with his brother Arthur Hampshire of East Main street were hunting rabbits near Hunt's Station. Arthur Hampshire shot at a rabbit and a part of the discharge struck a wire fence and one of the shots rebounded and struck Fred in the left eye. He was removed to his home in Newark and every effort made to save the eye, but it was found impossible and the operation was performed on Sunday.

His condition is satisfactory and speedy recovery is expected. Mr. Hampshire is employed as a painter.

President Quotes Scripture In Support of Defense Policy Outlined in New York Speech

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Nov. 8.—President Wilson finds support in the scriptures for his policy of national defense, and in a letter to Seth Low, who wrote the president commending his Manhattan Club speech quotes verses from the thirty-third chapter of Ezekiel. In the letter made public today at the White House the president said:

"I am particularly gratified that you should so fully concur in the position I took in my speech to the Manhattan club. There is a quotation from Ezekiel which I have had very much in mind recently in connection with these important matters. It is the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth verses of chapter 33."

"2—Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, when I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts and set him for their watchman."

"3—If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land he blow the trumpet and warn the people;

"4—Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away this sword shall be upon his own head."

"5—He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, his blood shall be upon him; but he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul."

"6—But if the watchman see the sword come and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

FRENCH OFFENSE SLOW BUT SURE; BULGARS' DEFEAT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Saloniki, Nov. 7, via London, Nov. 8.—The French offensive against the Bulgarians is proceeding surely but slowly because of the difficulties of the terrain in the sector northeast of Strumitsa.

Kachaly and Memisly were occupied on the fifth and Dolombo was stormed yesterday, it is reported here. The French advance toward the north is said to be continuing uninterrupted today with a British contingent on the right wing.

The Serbs are reported to have repulsed heavy Bulgarian attacks in the Krivolak sector where the French also have materially extended their lines which reaches northwest beyond Gradsko and west beyond the Thema river to the Kavada region.

The board of pardons had recommended clemency.

INCENDIARY PARDONED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, Nov. 8.—Governor Willis today granted a full pardon to Frank C. Bixler, convicted last April in Lorain county of having set fire to his store. Bixler's claim was that he intended not to burn the place but only to damage the stock slightly so that he could have a "fire sale."

The board of pardons had recommended clemency.

GERMAN CRUISER SUNK.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Via London.—The small German cruiser Undine has been torpedoed and sunk by a submarine off the Swedish coast, it was officially announced today.

The relations between the United States and Great Britain, he says must be governed not by expediency but by established rules of international conduct; it is of the highest importance to neutrals not only of the present day but of the future that the principles of international right be maintained unimpaired and the United States unhesitatingly assumes the task of championing the rights of neutrals.

Heretofore, Americans whose cargoes destined to neutral countries have been seized on the high seas and delayed or confiscated have been advised to exhaust legal remedies abroad before asking the United States government to seek reparation. Now, the note says, the government "feels that it cannot reasonably be expected to advise its citizens to seek redress before tribunals which are in its opinion unauthorized by the unrestrained application of international law to grant reparation, nor to refrain from presenting their claims directly to the British government through diplomatic channels."

Since the United States does not recognize the existence of a legal blockade Americans may look to their government for protection in the shipment of non-contraband cargoes not only to neutral countries contiguous to belligerents, but directly to or from the enemies of the allies.

"POLITE BUT HARD"

Is the Comment Upon American Note By English Newspaper.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Manchester, Eng., Nov. 8.—The American note to Great Britain is polite but hard in substance, in the opinion of the Guardian which says: "We must not let pre-occupations prevent us from trying to understand the United States' viewpoint. Although we shall be unable to concede its contentions much will depend upon the spirit in which it is dealt with officially, privately and publicly. Let none forget that the cordial friendship of the United States will not be a luxury but a necessity of British policy when the war is over."

Pointing out that the rules for blockades were made before railroads were built and that "lawyers and diplomats always have forgotten the railroads when revising the rules, the Guardian contends that if there were no interference with the transit of goods through these neutral countries, then Germany could not be blockaded.

HOME RULE

REGARDING SUNDAY SALOON CLOSING WILL BE ASKED FROM GOV. DUNNE.

Labor Interests Held Big Parade in Chicago Protesting Mayor Thompson's Drastic Order.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Chicago, Nov. 8.—Appeal for revision of the Sunday closing law, giving cities home rule on the question will be made to Governor Dunne today by the saloon interests who yesterday held a street parade in the downtown district as a protest against Mayor Thompson's order closing Sunday saloons in Chicago.

Governor Dunne will be asked to include the home rule proposal in his expected call for a special session of the state legislature. The demonstration yesterday held under the auspices of the United Societies, was declared to be the largest and in many respects the most spectacular parade held in Chicago in many years. More than 40,000 persons, by actual count of tabulators employed by newspapers, participated in the parade. Officials of the United Societies, however, said the total number of marchers was 101,000.

Fewer violations of the saloon closing order were reported by police today than on any previous Sunday. Only twenty-five violations as compared with sixty-two a week ago, were reported. There were forty-six arrests for drunkenness.

SOLIDITY

Of the Junction of Bulgarians With Austro-Germans Is Accomplished

BY THE FALL OF CITY OF NISH

Invaders Now Hold More Than Half of Serbia

A SEVERE CHECK GIVEN

In Southern Portion, However, Where the Fortunes of War Are With the Serbians Who Have Been Aided Materially By the French and British Expeditionary Forces.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] London, Nov. 8.—The fall of Nish has united solidly the main Bulgarian forces, and the Austro-German armies advancing from the north. Hitherto their communications consisted merely of tentative reaching out of advance guards.

Bulgarians and their allies now hold considerably more than half of Serbia, and command the Nish railway, which has been one of the chief objectives of their campaign.

From Nish, the Bulgarian line now runs north in a slight curve, encircling the Morava river, to Krivir, where it joins the main Austro-German forces. From that point the invaders' line turns at a right angle and runs due west across the broadest part of Serbia. The rough semi-circle made by this line is still contracting and as it does so according to German reports is taking a heavy toll of Serbian prisoners.

In southern Serbia, the fortunes of war are less auspicious for the invaders. There the Bulgarians apparently have received a severe check from the Serbians, assisted by French and British troops.

No official confirmation has been received however of a decisive defeat of the Bulgarians who are attempting to advance into Macedonia through Babuna Pass. South of Strumitsa the French are fighting on Bulgarian soil. The crisis occasioned by the resignation of the Greek cabinet has been met temporarily and if the chamber of deputies accepts the new Skoutoudis ministry, the present status may be continued indefinitely with no change in the announced policy of Greece, now reiterated, of benevolent neutrality.

On the eastern front severe but indecisive fighting continues before Riga and Dvinsk. The offensive movement of the Russians in Galicia along the Strpa has been halted for the present and the long battle in that region has ended. There are no developments of importance on the other front.

COLD STORAGE EGGS MUST BE STAMPED IN N. Y.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] New York, Nov. 8.—All cold-storage eggs sold in this city after November 15, must be stamped as such and all dealers in them must display signs stating that cold-storage eggs are on sale, says John J. Dillon, state commissioner of foods and markets, in a warning bulletin received by egg merchants today.

Mr. Dillon advised the retailers to require wholesalers to state plainly on bills and receipts whether the eggs they sold were fresh or cold-storage.

Mr. Dillon asserted that he is informed that 75,000 cases of cold-storage eggs are being sold and consumed in New York city weekly as strictly fresh eggs. This is said in violation of the state law regulating the sale of cold storage products and probably the federal food law as well.

STANLEY'S VOTE IS DECREASING

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Announcement was made today that a recount of ballots in the first eleven wards of the city of Louisville cast in Tuesday's gubernatorial election had trimmed the unofficial majority of former Congressman A. O. Stanley, Democrat, from 585 to 338.

SERBIAN TOWN TAKEN.

Berlin, Nov. 8, via London.—The Serbian town of Krusevac, on the railroad about 50 miles northwest of Nosh, has been occupied by German troops, according to today's official statement given out by army headquarters staff.

George Griffith Found Dead Along Railroad Tracks With Skull Crushed by a Train

George B. Griffith, 69 years old, known to stock raisers over Central Ohio as "Buck" Griffith, was found dead at daylight Sunday morning along the joint B. & O.-Pennsylvania right of way east of Union street.

The Bradley ambulance was called and the body was removed to the morgue where the body was prepared for burial.

The hour of the man's death is not known but it is supposed that he was struck by a train sometime during the night. His skull was crushed and his right hand mangled. Death must have been instantaneous.

Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of his son, Milford Griffith, 248 German street. Burial will be made in Fairmount cemetery.

Lineman Nearly Electrocuted; Ira Wolfe, Telephone Employee, Backs Into High Tension Wire

Ira Wolfe, an employee of the Central Union Telephone company, was seriously injured when he backed into a high tension wire on a pole at the corner of Williams street and Burt avenue about 10 o'clock Monday morning.

He was engaged in stringing what is known as a "messenger" for the company and evidently backed into the high tension wire for the back of his neck is burned to the bone where the wire struck him. Messrs. L. L. Hauck of Grant street and O. W. Hauck, of Hancock, brothers, who were passing at the time went to his assistance and the Crisis brothers ambulance and Dr. P. H. Cosner were called and he was removed to the Newark Sanitarium.

The examination showed that a gash about four inches long had been burned to bone across the back of the neck, and in falling he evidently grasped the wire for the right hand is burned so badly that the muscles have contracted drawing the fingers to the palm of the hand. He hung to the pole until he was removed by passerby.

APPOINTEE ON LICENSE BOARD A RADICAL DRY

J. EDWARD HURST SELECTED BY GOVERNOR WILLIS TO SUC-CEED CLENDENING.

Willis Again Rewarded the Faction
That Aided in Defeating
James M. Cox.

Columbus, Nov. 8.—Ex-Senator J. Edward Hurst of New Philadelphia, a radical dry and member of the so-called True Democracy league, has been chosen by Governor Willis to succeed Byron M. Clendenning of Cincinnati as Democratic member of the state liquor license commission. Clendenning was removed by the Governor some two weeks ago on charges of misconduct for promoting the referendum against the McDermott liquor license ripper, which administration measure was overwhelmingly rejected by the people of Ohio at last Tuesday's election.

Mr. Hurst accompanied William J. Bryan on his trip through Ohio the week before election in the interest of the dry amendment. In announcing Mr. Hurst's appointment, Governor Willis said that Mr. Hurst stands for a rigid enforcement of the license law.

Whether Mr. Hurst will be able to take the position to which he has just been appointed by the governor will depend upon the decision of the supreme court in the mandamus suit brought by Mr. Clendenning to determine whether his removal was legal. In this suit, Mr. Clendenning asks that the liquor license commission be ordered to certify his name on the payroll. This raises the question of the legality of the governor's action.

Mr. Clendenning admitted that he took part in the getting up of a referendum on the McDermott act, but contended that he acted within his constitutional rights in so doing, and further contended that as he had taken an oath to uphold the Greenlund license law, that it was right and proper for him to try to defeat an act that sought its destruction.

Mr. Clendenning declared that the people of the state did not want the Greenlund license law disturbed. He appears to have been right about that, judging from their big majority against the McDermott law Tuesday.

Senator Hurst is well known in Newark where he has frequently visited politically, socially and upon business matters.

HURST TAKES OFFICE.

Columbus, Nov. 8.—J. Edward Hurst, of New Philadelphia, newly appointed Democratic member of the state liquor licensing board, took office today, succeeding Byron M. Clendenning. Calling on Gov. Willis, Mr. Hurst said he believes in strict enforcement of all liquor laws and will make it his policy as a member of the state board. He explained that fundamentally he believes in prohibition of the liquor traffic, but in strict regulation while it exists. Mr. Hurst's statement was interpreted in official circles as indicating that he and M. M. Rose, another member of the state board who is considered anti-liberal would control the board and this would eliminate hopes any city might have of non-enforcement of the Sunday or midnight closing laws.

AMERICA

they were accepted as they stand, would abolish the commercial blockade of any continental power. Only islands which have no neutral side doors could be blockaded commercially.

"Does the United States question the right of interference with German trade imported through neutral ports? If the answer is yes, then our answer must be one of resistance to a view of law which would work out very unjustly to us as an island country and which America did not recognize when she was at war. The only concession we could make on principle would be to agree to discuss the whole question with the United States at the end of war when the time came to rewrite the entire law of naval capture.

"If, on the other hand, the United States does not assert this principle then the matter between us is one rather of detail than of principle. It seems as vital now in March that we would right ourselves in legal form by declaring a blockade of Germany and announcing our intention to interpret that blockade on the principle of the ultimate destination of cargo for which there is good authority in international practice."

Notwithstanding the forecasts of the American note to Great Britain which had been sent from Washington by correspondents of the British press, surprise is the predominant tone of the majority of the British newspapers in their comment upon the document. The country has been too deeply wrapped up in the consideration of pressing European problems during the past few weeks to give much attention to American opinion and apparently it was not aware that the treatment of American shipping might furnish ground for a serious controversy between the two governments.

"The American note upon our interference with neutral trade," says the Pall Mall Gazette, "will be read with some surprise in this country. While the duty of every power to keep vigilant guard over the interests of its own commerce will be freely recognized it must be felt that the United States scarcely grapples with the realities of the situation created in the first place by the fact of war, and in the second by the criminality of German practices. In some passages, the note seems to invoke the authority of international law as if its problems could be finally settled for one belligerent without reference to the doings of the other. That is a view utterly inapplicable in the world of things as they are. It is impossible to deal with questions arising between the allies and the United States while ignoring the practices of Admiral von Tirpitz and the changes in policy which they enforced upon ourselves, and our friends."

The Gazette says the British government has shown a desire to reduce inconvenience to neutral trade to a minimum, but that it is notorious that the methods of concealment which it declares have been adopted by American shippers exhibit a variety and ingenuity demanding the most thorough counter check.

"It we have been driven to introduce new precedents into international law we are only following in the footsteps of the American government in far less drastic fashion than the records of the Civil War display."

AMERICAN PAPERS

With Unanimity Praise the Tone of Note to Great Britain.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
BOSTON, TRAVELER: That it (the note) will have the slightest effect on England's methods only the most optimistic will believe. That the administration hopes to change those methods does not seem probable. Fighting for her very life as admittedly England is, it is too much to expect that she will do anything in response to verbal pressure, that would make her position more difficult, if that were possible, than it is at the present time. She will continue to do what she has been doing, and will argue the case when such an argument seems expedient.

LEWISTON, (Me.) EVENING JOURNAL: The note will be taken in this country rather as a fulfillment of neutrality than as any evidence of a lack of sympathy and friendliness to the allies' cause.

BALTIMORE NEWS: This government "insists" it "will not submit to" the alleged blockade that it is "ineffective, illegal and indefensible." These are very positive expressions, not warranted in the exchanges between two sovereign nations, except in the case of absolutely established grievances. Resort to them tells emphatically how much and how unjustifiably we have been made to suffer by England's high handed course.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, TRIBUNE: Americans can find no fault with the note to Great Britain, as to its fairness, justice of its demands or its earnestness. Also it leaves pro-German enthusiasts no grounds on which to accuse the administration of partiality or pro-English sentiment. It stands for American rights based on established principle in international law.

The STANDARD, BRIDGEPORT, CONN.: President Wilson's note to England, is logical, clear, correct and firm. He has the law and the facts with him and his statement of both is straightforward, and plain. It does not mean war and is not intended to stir up needless animosity, but it "means business" all the same.

THE REGISTER, TORRINGTON, CONN.: It nullifies every claim of the hyphenated that the attitude of the American government is not neutral. The arguments are valid and the British diplomats cannot refute them.

INDIANAPOLIS NEWS: The argument of the American secretary of state on all the controverted points seems to us, entirely convincing. Mr. Lansing makes it clear that we are acting for ourselves alone, and that we are not inspired merely by commercial motives. The note reflects honor on the administration and on the nation.

FORMER NEWARK MAN'S MOTHER IS ALMOST NINETY

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jewett of Sioux Falls, S. D., who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller of Hudson avenue, expect to return home tomorrow. Mr. Jewett is planning for the celebration of his mother's ninetieth birthday anniversary next Monday at Sioux Falls, and he and Mrs. Jewett are also expecting to attend the wedding of his nephew Kenneth Jewett and Miss Dorothy Danforth, at East Orange, N. J., on the 24th inst. Kenneth Jewett, son of Rollin Jewett, is well known in Newark and Granville, where he was graduated from Denison university about six years ago. He is now living at Skaneateles, N. Y., where he is engaged in business.

Mr. Jewett has just received a letter from home saying that Sherwood Miller, son of E. S. Miller, had resumed his duties as assistant manager in the Jewett Brothers Sioux Falls offices. He has just recovered after four weeks' illness of typhoid fever.

Mr. D. C. Jewett went west in 1889 and since that time he has paid an annual visit to his home town Newark. Last year he visited Newark twice. He reads the Advocate every day and is not only deeply interested in everything that pertains to the welfare of Newark but he keeps well informed on the news of this vicinity.

HORSES FOR WAR

READY FOR EUROPE.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 8.—Ten thousand war horses assembled here during last week from points in the middle-west, were last night and today forwarded to Elizabeth, N. J., where it was said they would be allowed to recuperate before being shipped to Europe. Hostlers who accompanied the trains, declared that reported attempts to poison horses at stock yards in certain western cities had prompted contractors to assemble the horses in Pittsburgh.

Most of us like our cigarette smoke deliciously cool and refreshing. The Mexican likes his hot and dry, with a nice little peppery sting in it.

Some men like a cigarette wholesomely, fragrantly mild. Others of us hunt for a cigarette almost as heavy as a black cigar.

Most of us want an "easy" cigarette—a SENSIBLE one, so that no matter how steadily or how many we smoke, we'll feel as fit as a fiddle. Other men, though, don't care about that. They smoke only a few—so they want a kick like a mule's in each puff.

All of us want our smoke "full-bodied"—it must satisfy that smoke-hunger. But the cigarette that just fills the bill for you may not do at all for your next-door neighbor.

Somewhere—among all the brands on the market—is the one just-right cigarette for YOU!

Maybe it's the very one you have now in your pocket—but are you SURE? Maybe it's some entirely "different" cigarette—it may or may not be Fatima.

But "find it!" Until you do, you're cheating yourself out of a whole lot of smoke-pleasure. Also you're wasting some money.

How to Find "yours"

To avoid blindly trying too many different cigarettes, ask yourself, first of all, this question:

"Just what do I like in a cigarette?"

If you smoke only a few every day, you may prefer a cigarette which is rather rich or heavy and "oily." Or you may like one which has a rather strong "oriental" taste with a pungency almost like perfume. Or you may want a cigarette with that noticeably "sweetish" Egyptian flavor. But if you smoke quite often—if you would like to smoke whenever you feel like it and without any effect on the tongue or throat or any fear of a heavy or "heady" feeling afterwards—then you should choose some cigarette such as Fatima, a cigarette composed of all-pure tobaccos of considerable aroma, mellowed by being aged and carefully blended to produce a fragrant and wholesomely mild, yet "full-bodied," smoke. And the smoke must be noticeably COOL. For otherwise your tongue or your throat will soon signal you to stop smoking so often.

If you will ask any Fatima smoker, he will tell you that Fatimas never make him "feel mean"—no matter how many he smokes.

That is why Fatimas are considered the most sensible cigarette by such a large majority of smokers. And that is probably the main reason why hardly any Fatima smokers ever switch! They like a sensible cigarette—and one with a good, pure taste to it.

But the Taste is up to You

All cigarettes are pure, but when it comes to the taste, nobody can help you choose. You simply have to decide for yourself.

Of course, Fatima's taste may not appeal to you. But most men who try Fatimas like the taste so well that they seek no further—otherwise Fatimas could never have won and held their enormous and growing leadership amounting to over one and a half BILLION cigarettes a year.

The one purpose of this advertisement is to ask you in a fair and square way to give Fatimas (20 for 15c) a good trial. If they don't happen to suit your taste, you'll quit smoking them of course. But if you like Fatimas as well as MOST men do, you'll be mighty glad you read this advertisement—and ACTED ON IT!

Below are two simple tests which you can easily make and which may help you find your sensible cigarette.

It may or may not be Fatima. But be fair to yourself and find "yours."

TWO TESTS FOR ANY CIGARETTE

The taste of the cigarette—according to a leading tobacco journal—is up to the smoker. But there are other qualities that you should look for in the cigarette that you are going to stick to for your steady smoke. Here are a couple of tests that may help the average smoker to choose more wisely between different kinds of cigarettes.

The first test is for coolness, which means more comfort to the throat and tongue. Light any cigarette. Draw in a cloud of smoke—a small, ordinary puff is not sufficient to make this test. Hold it in your mouth for a few seconds. Let it "beat" around against your tongue and throat. Now blow out the smoke. If the cigarette contains a high grade of mild tobacco leaves, combined in just the right proportion, it will always feel cool and smooth both to your throat and to your tongue.

On the other hand, if the proportions are not right and if the cigarette contains inferior grades of tobacco or hidden strands of rank, oily leaf, you will feel a tipping sting at the tip of your throat, or that "sausage-pie" in your throat. Test number two—How do you feel after smoking all day?

If the tobaccos in the cigarette include a correct proportion of mild grades—and if all of the various grades have been properly mellowed by age—and if they have been so blended as to bring out the best qualities in each of the different types of tobaccos, you will be able to smoke practically any number of cigarettes in which the day without feeling any effect from them.

But with another cigarette in which the blend is less skillful, even though the tobaccos are of the highest grade, you will find along towards the end of the day that you are likely to have that feeling of having "smoked too much."

Clip out these tests and try them on Fatima

RUMANIA NOW HAS PASSED A CABINET CRISIS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Milan, Italy, Nov. 7, via Paris, Nov. 8.—There is no longer any probability of a ministerial crisis in Rumania, says the Bucharest correspondent of the Corriera Della Sera.

Even the interventionist opposition, he asserts agrees with the government that military exaction must depend upon the strategical situation in the Balkans. A majority of the people of the nation seem to believe that inasmuch as Rumania now is virtually surrounded by fighting forces her entry into the war would mean useless sacrifice of a reserve of men upon which the entire might count when the sea route, the only sure road for military supplies, again is opened.

One of the chiefs of the interventionists is credited with having said that everything indicates Rumania's military aid will decide the Balkan war and that this help will be offered at the most propitious moment.

MARKET HOUSE CASE DECIDED THIS MORNING

DEFENDANTS AWARDED DECISION AFTER LONG DRAWN OUT LEGAL BATTLE

Plaintiffs Will Take Case to Court of Appeals—Judge Harry Jewell to Preside at Athey Case.

The case of George Weisant, et al. vs. the People's Market Company, et al., was decided by Judge Fulton in common pleas court on Monday morning. The action was brought to restrain the defendants from taking from the market house on West Main street the equipment and things therein necessary to run the place as a market house, and also to prohibit the defendants from closing said building as a market house.

An accounting was also asked by plaintiffs of the amounts received during the operation of the West Main Street Market House. Plaintiffs claimed that the organization by which the West Main street market was managed and conducted was a co-operative concern, and that plaintiffs and defendants co-operated together in order to produce the market and make it a success.

The court held that it was not a co-operative concern, and that the only thing that plaintiffs, and those whom they represent, contributed to the organization, or to the success of the enterprise was whatever amount they paid as bench-renters in the market house; that they did not contribute the profits or whatever they made out of each day's market to the concern, but that the profits went into their private pockets, and the court held that this fact shows that it was not a co-operative concern. The court decided that there was nothing in the claims of the plaintiffs which would demand or require the court to order an accounting between plaintiffs and defendants. The court further held that it had no power to enjoin the defendants in any way in the use and occupation of the Hamilton-Bader building, or to control the defendants in any way in the management of the lease of said building. The injunction heretofore issued was dissolved. Bond for appeal was fixed at $700. Exceptions were noted in favor of plaintiffs.

Plaintiffs' attorneys stated that the case would be taken to the court of appeals. Fruit Dispatch Co. vs. F. Lisey, a suit to recover on a shipment of a car-load of bananas. Motion by plaintiff for a change of venue overruled. Frank P. Gourley vs. Ida J. Gourley, et al. A suit in partition. Demurrer overruled. Leave to answer in 30 days. Citizens Bank of Anderson, Indiana vs. Brown Realty Co. An action to recover against a garnishee. Heretofore assigned for trial Friday. Continued.

Judge T. B. Fulton will hold court at Delaware next week. Judge H. W. Jewell, of Delaware, will hold court here on Monday next, and will preside at the trial of the Athey murder case.

Justice Scott's Office. In the case of the State of Ohio vs. Livingston, charged by Rex Jones with assault and battery, Justice Scott after hearing the evidence fined the defendant $50 and costs which he paid. The case is one in which the parties involved are said to have attempted to settle their difficulties with bare fists.

Adjured Insane. Lucy Cheney of Main street was adjudged insane in probate court today and ordered committed to the state hospital. The examining physicians were Drs. Carl J. Dillon and J. W. Barker.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Newark Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Newark readers.

William H. H. Dennis, 50 German St., Newark, says: "I had such a bad back I couldn't attend to my work. If I tried to bend, a sharp stitch caught me. Nights I couldn't sleep well because of dull pains across my loins. Mornings I couldn't stoop to put my shoes on. My wife often had to assist me to dress. The kidney secretions passed too frequently every night and got me out of bed. The secretions also contained heavy sediment. I failed to get any benefit from different medicines until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Three boxes completely cured me."

Hazel Dawn, one of the screen's most beautiful and charming stars, also proves herself an actress of genuine dramatic power in the famous Players Film Company's appealing photo-adaptation of "The Heart of Jennifer," by Edith Barnard Delano, author of another famous players screen triumph, "Rags." "The Heart of Jennifer" is the story of a woman's strong love for her husband, which prompts her to place upon herself the guilt of the crime committed by his sister. In the role of Jennifer, Hazel Dawn suggests with infinite tenderness and pathos the heroic fortitude of the sacrificing wife. "The Heart of Jennifer" is a potplay that conforms with the highest standard of the Famous Players Film Co.

Nancy Boyer Arrives.

Nancy Boyer and her company of players arrived here yesterday from Springfield where they enjoyed the largest week's business ever accorded this popular organization. They open their engagement this afternoon at the Auditorium with that screamingly funny farce, "Baby Mine" and tonight George Broadhurst's masterpiece "Bought and Paid For" will be the offering. These two international successes, so widely different in theme, will afford the company every opportunity to prove their merits and it is only for this reason that Miss Boyer has selected two such strenuous parts to portray in one day. She is most generous in her attitude to each and every member of her company and will often stand in the wings and applaud some clever bit of work. There are but few, if any, stars who would encumber themselves with additional work for the mere reason of showing their supporting company to the best advantage. But it is because of these unselfish methods that Miss Boyer has placed herself in her envied position of popularity.

One thing is forever good;—

That one thing is success.—Emerson.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter
March 10, 1882, at the Postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 4, 1879.

The dear public never buys stocks with such confidence and enthusiasm as when prices are very close to the top.

The kitchen stew-pot instead of the political pot for women seems to be the verdict of the Eastern states on suffrage.

It is sometimes difficult for the newspapers to find space for election returns, but there is no difficulty about the football scores.

Occasionally one of these European kings pops up and pats the Lord on the head and praises him as if he were a small boy.

The men are showing their rugged independence of fashion by all creasing their hats after the same manner and different from last year.

"America First" is the title of Sousa's latest march. It would be excellent music with which to march some people out of the country.

The farm boys have been picking apples of late, and when father isn't looking, valuable time is saved by shaking them off on the ground.

It will not be necessary for the reporter who writes up the President's wedding, to note that the bridegroom wore the conventional suit of black.

After having rung door bells and tooted automobile horns on dark evenings for six weeks, the boys feel that Halloween has been conscientiously celebrated.

In 40 states that held no elections this fall, the politicians did not have to make careful inquiries concerning the health of yourself, your wife and your children.

The people who failed to repay the government for the money lent them to get home from Europe last year are perhaps the same ones who think America is so inferior to Europe.

The newspapers of each party have now all had leading articles warning the other party of the awful warning administered them by the eight states that voted last week.

While few accidents would happen if all motorists were reasonably cautious, some people should be reminded that a cross walk is not the place to stop and discuss the political situation.

The Value of a Vote.

Public men rarely fail to cast their ballots. They have too much occasion to see how public business suffers from the inattention of the average citizen. Also it would suggest their own lack of civic virtue, if they failed to take all possible pains to exercise the suffrage.

Most presidents have thus made it a practice to travel long distances to vote at home elections. President Wilson followed the usual custom this fall, when he travelled three times to New Jersey, to vote at the primary, suffrage referendum, and election. It took valuable time, but the example set made the trip worth while.

The average citizen takes these duties lightly. He would not take a railroad journey of any length whatever to cast a vote. He may forget the closing hour in his own town, and lose his suffrage. If he lives on the outskirts and the day is rainy, he can't take the pains to visit the polls. He complains bitterly of government inefficiency. Yet he won't take a half dollar's worth of time to support the best men to work against such inefficiency.

A man of more than average intelligence was talking about this the other day. "I always know who is running for governor," he said. "Also I know who the local candidates for the Legislature are." But that's all I ever know about politics. Most of the men I associate with are the same. They never read anything about what Congress does or the Legislature. But they see everything in the football news or the baseball page.

With these easy standards of civic obligation existing, it is no wonder the politicians find it easy to lead the people around by the nose. A man can't cast an intelligent ballot merely by reading newspaper headlines or listening to scraps of talk in barber's shops. Let him reflect that inefficient government adds more to the cost of living than all the unjust exactions of the trusts. These men in public office are his agents, paid by him to do his service. He should know every day what they are up to and why.

Cost of Women's Clothes.

A lady visiting here the other day who recently moved to a large city, was talking about the cost of dress-making. She had made some inquiries as to a dressmaker who could make her a gown for a moderate price. Having been directed to such a personage, she found that her very lowest price for a very simple dress, was $75.00. This was additional to cost of material.

It seems surprising that such prices, far in excess of what is needed to buy a good tailor made man's suit, should be obtained. Probably the reason is that the demands of women as to style, taste, and fitting, grow more exacting every year. Only people having unusual technical skill, and an eye for harmony and individuality in color and design, can fill the bill. If they can suit this critical trade, they can get about any price they ask.

The lady telling the story said that this dressmaker remarked, that if she did not care to pay the price, it was much better to buy ready-made than patronize cheap makers. This is a conclusion that the great majority of women long since reached.

The first time you take up the roller skating fad it is not best to attempt to write your name on the floor backward, particularly if you weigh 200 pounds and the building looks shaky.

The happy exemption of the United States from this awful war is probably due not so much to the superior wisdom of the American people, as to the width and wetness of the ocean lying between.

Complaints are made that the boys throw the neighbors' porch chairs off on the ground during these autumn evenings, but it isn't thoroughly satisfactory to the youngsters unless a chair arm or two is broken.

Ohio and Prohibition.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.) Such rejoicing as the liquor interests indulged in last week over defeat of woman's suffrage in three states must have been tinged with misgivings as they studied the figures from Ohio. It is true that statewide prohibition was defeated a second time in two years, but the margin in favor of the "wets" more than cut in half. Inasmuch as voters also rejected an amendment which would have enforced a six-year wait between votes on constitutional proposals that had been twice defeated, the tactical advantage appears to be with the "drys" despite their reversal on the main issue.

Evidently the brewer, distiller, and saloonkeeper will be compelled to fight continually to retain his foothold on Ohio soil. When Hamilton and Cuyahoga counties, Cincinnati and Cleveland, begin to waken on the license question the conquest of the state for prohibition beverages cannot be delayed long. It is apparent from the scant leeway left for the "wets" in Tuesday's election that the untrammelled and uncontrolled vote of the state is against them. In the nature of things, therefore, the sentiment in favor of shutting down the traffic is bound to assert itself. A cause which can be maintained only by a species of coercion and force, like that practiced by the liquor people, has so little to commend it that even those who incline to liberal views, and customs sooner or later become ashamed of the company they keep. We had a specimen of that kind of voting in Allegheny county on Tuesday, when the liquor interests dragged men connected with the business into deserting personal friends and the party column in order to assure the election of a candidate whose chances of success were considered to be slim otherwise. Yesterday the unwilling participants in this scheme were apologizing for their recreancy with the plea of self-defense.

But when the anti-saloon forces gain such strength as they have in Ohio, and can come down to election day so close to triumph, the accepted methods of vote getting for an ultimately losing game are more and more discredited. There is in many men an inherent sense of the fitness of things and decent regard for community opinion which will not permanently be denied. Hence, when viewed unselfishly and as distinguished from the victory of the moment, it is plain that the writing is on the wall in Ohio and in letters not to be misunderstood.

Not a Normal War.

(Springfield Republican.) Admitting that exports of war material are legal if "normal" in volume, the Vienna Government would undoubtedly insist that it be permitted to decide for itself when the "normal" is exceeded in such shipments. A moment's reflection on the question who should determine what is "normal" will expose the preposterous character of the Vienna Government's position, so far as this war is concerned. No past war furnishes a standard for anything in the present war, which is fought on so tremendous a scale as to blanket all precedents as to size of armies engaged, extent of battle lines and amount of munitions required. Whatever is required from this country in war materials—which the purchasers can pay for and the sellers can ship—is both normal and legal. If the Vienna Government wishes to continue the argument, it might be told that, in sending its historic ultimatum to Serbia, it did not precipitate a normal war.

Spirit of the Press

War's Pomp.
One of the German war films, now showing in Kansas City, discloses a parade of cripples on the porch of a hospital—a long procession of men with one or both legs missing. Another shows blinded soldiers led out for an airing. The films might be entitled "The Pomp of War."—Kansas City Star.

Must Have Been Interesting.
Mr. Sibley's embroidered window curtains remind us of the lady, no matter where, who went to the store for a pack of apples, taking as she supposed a newly laundered flour sack. She held the sack and the clerk poured in the apples, which all rolled out at the other end. On examination it was found there were two holes in the bottom, both trimmed and embroidered. The clerk faintly and the lady sent a small boy for the apples with a basket.—Vinton Leader.

Cat's Out of the Bag.
Having no approaching weddings in their own families to announce in the immediate future, a number of the society ladies of Rich Hill held a soiree one afternoon recently, and in a very pretty manner announced the coming marriage of President Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt.—Cass County (Mo.) Leader.

Pretty Little Love Story.
The life story of a London man whom his first love girl brings out the fact that he had no more gumption than to pine, live as a hermit, grow a beard and sleep on the ground for 50 years, while the man's sweetheart married squandered her fortune, kicked her to death and paid for his life on the scaffold.—Springfield Republican.

Brand Whitlock.
He is on his way home from Belgium, where he has been the American minister. He comes on account of ill health, but it is not probable that he will return. It is not only his health that will induce him to stay, but the discomfort he experienced in remaining owing to his published expression on the Edith Cavell case, the English nurse who was executed on the charge of being a spy, for whose release from the dark fate he grandly worked. All that mortal could do to save the woman Whitlock did. Ohio is proud of him. His splendid character, ability and courage are needed in Ohio. He can do more good than anywhere else, and it won't be long until he is at the front doing it.—Ohio State Journal.

Pointed Observations

Senator Walsh of Montana, favors a 20 per cent. ad valorem export tax on war munitions. Only obstacle is Article 1, Section 9, of the Constitution, but such a trifle should not be permitted to stand in the way of pleasing a Senator.—Wall Street Journal.

More German officers are missing from the interned ships at Newport News. Do they regard the paroles given by their commanders as "scraps of paper?"—New York World.

In fighting with the Serbians against Bulgarians the allies are putting up the only kind of argument that has the slightest chance of being heard either in Greece or Rumania.—Chicago Herald.

If you think the President's proposal to spend $400,000,000 for national defense squads appallingly burdensome, compare it with the sums Europe is spending monthly for war purposes.—Kansas City Journal.

The confidence with which Kitchener calls for extraordinary numbers of recruits would be regarded with surprise if it were manifested by a man less accustomed to know precisely what he is talking about.—Washington Star.

Now we shall be charged with another breach of neutrality for talking to Paris instead of Berlin by wireless.—New York Evening Sun.

In praying that he may live to see a woman President of the United States, Bishop Moore is no doubt sincere. Every good bishop has longings for immortality.—Kansas City Journal.

Mrs. Pankhurst says it is the German strain in Englishmen that makes them so obstinate. We don't know which this will make the madder—the Englishmen or the Germans.—Manchester Union.

Herr Edward Meyer of Berlin, who in his recent book says America is a nation of degenerates, a nervous, sickly race, is hereby turned over for attention to Colonel Roosevelt.—New York Evening Telegram.

Benjamin Franklin's familiar and pregnant remark about the danger of hanging separately if the patriot leaders didn't hang together contains a valuable tip for the allies at this time.—Chicago Herald.

Perhaps the Serbian women who have taken arms feel that they might as well die that way as against a stone wall, to say nothing of the worse things than death.—Wall Street Journal.

"Pale, worried and very old" is the latest description of the Kaiser's appearance as the Prussian casualty list passes the two-million mark.—New York World.

William Rockefeller cannot understand how Mr. Mellon has the voice to face it, and some other wonder how he has the face to voice it.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The report that the Panama Canal is to be re-opened January 1 is interesting, but it would be still more interesting to know how long it will stay open thereafter.—Indianapolis News.

Lansing is young enough to be a possibility in 1920.—Rochester Herald.

Hope Springzytural
I had an awful night, but it is morn. And Hope stands up and begs to be reborn.

Last week my business brought me only fret—
The morning mail's not been delivered yet!
It may contain an order that will give Me not alone a chance to work and live,
But to put by some for a rainy day,
I don't expect it, but, you know, it MAY!

And when the mail's been laid up on my desk
With its assortment, cheeky and grotesque,
Of begging schemes such as no man may heed,
I find not that which I so sorely need.

I will not yet despair—you bet I won't!
People who have good gumption always don't.
Because it hasn't come, must I bewail?
Great Caesar, no! There'll be another mail.

There is an opera singer in New York whose middle name is Humbird.

Cows
Cows are what supply the basis of the milkman's justly-celebrated product.

After the rippling rill or the pump have put on the finishing touches, the wagon starts.

Nearly every dairy has a cow or so displayed prominently in the pasture nearest the public road.

This is the sign of a dairy, just as a pole of varied colors is the sign of a barber shop.

Barbers used to bleed people, and cows used to be depended on to supply milk.

Some dairymen cling to that old-fashioned and antiquated habit.

Any dairymen who gets sore about this is a nice dairymen, and we

Every time a plain, ordinary man sees a guy wearing a sport shirt he wonders how the sport shirt happened to forget his lavalliere.

There was a time when a man was expected to carry a handkerchief in his hand so he wouldn't soil a girl's face when he danced with her, but nowadays if he isn't able to wipe his feet all over her clothes he isn't considered a good dancer.

After a Pennsylvania judge awarded a woman divorce and alimony amounting to 40 cents a day she effected a reconciliation with her husband before leaving the courtroom. She probably figured she could do better by frisking his pockets every morning.

The reason we are disgusted when we hear a man bragging about himself is because we wouldn't be if he was bragging about us.

The fellow who regards everything in life as a joke may be a worthless cuss, but he has more real friends than the lad who takes himself too seriously.

Most of us are so feather brained that any old kind of a puff will send us up in the air.

The storks haven't any more luck than the rest of us. Some of them are assigned to the tenement districts and are worked to death, and others draw fashionable neighborhoods and do not have to make a dozen trips a year.

...er all, it is a good thing that 75 per cent of us are fools. If we were all wise a whole lot of people would have to go to work for a living.

There may be germs in your girl's kisses. But you never think of the germs when it is some other man's girl.

A man doesn't have to have a lot of children to be benpecked. There is the poor dub whose wife makes him take the poodle out for a walk every night.

You can always make a woman mad by staring at her shoes.

We like to imagine that we are a busy nation. But you haven't any difficulty in finding a herd of men standing in line in front of a movie waiting for seats.

A fool man can't see any harm in flirting with a married woman until he wakes up in the hospital and wonders why all the nags in the world are tied around his head.

A woman can always start a battle with her husband over what make of automobile they would buy if they had the price of a automobile.

There is no use trying to reason with your wife. The minute you begin she will interrupt you and want to know what you are mad about.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If feverish, bilious, constipated, give fruit laxative at once.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Mr. Cityman—"How are you getting on with your incubator, Uncle Si?" Uncle Si—"It's a gosh darned fraud. The blamed thing hasn't laid a single egg since I had it."

MIDNIGHT ALARM CALLS DEPARTMENT TWICE IN AN HOUR

A burning outhouse along the banks of the North Fork just east of the Vogelmeier warehouse called out the fire department about midnight Saturday. The loss was nominal. The department had hardly returned to their stations when another alarm called them to the same vicinity where a small blaze was burning in the wall on the first floor of the Nutt playing mill. The origin of this blaze is a mystery as it is claimed it could not have been started from the first fire. The loss was small, the blaze being quickly extinguished after the arrival of the firemen.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once children there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

LAD KICKED BY HORSE SUFFERS SERIOUS INJURIES

Kenneth Holler, the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Holler of Twenty-first street, who was kicked in the head by a horse late Friday evening, is slightly improved. The child was playing in the street, when some horses were led by. The horses stopped in the road and the boy got under their feet and was kicked in the side of the head. He was removed to the Newark Sanitarium, by Dr. C. F. Legge who was called and it was found that he was suffering with a serious concussion of the brain. His condition is improved today and it is not thought there will be any serious results.

PARIS FASHION HINT

The model of the evening coat is very full and in kimono style with very wide sleeves that are draped a little above the wrist. The bottom of the coat is made of velvet, embroidered in Chinese fashion and has a sweeping train. The sleeves and collar are of skunk fur.

CORN CROP IS MOST VALUABLE IN U. S. HISTORY

Washington, Nov. 8.—The nation's corn crop this year was the most valuable ever grown. Based on prices paid farmers November 1, it is worth nearly two billion dollars—$1,913,025,000 in exact figures. In size it is second only to the record crop of 1912. The production was 3,090,569,000 bushels—or 34,000,000 less than the country's previous biggest crop.

Estimates of production of the principal crops were announced today by the department of agriculture as follows: Corn, 3,090,569,000 bushels; wheat, 16,350,000 bushels; potatoes, 359,253,000 bushels; sweet potatoes, 66,650,000 bushels; tobacco, 1,050,025,000 pounds; flaxseed, 18,446,000 pounds; pears, 11,216,000 bushels; apples, 76,670,000 bushels.

KITCHIN

DEMOCRATIC HOUSE LEADER WILL NOT SUPPORT PRESIDENT'S DEFENSE PLANS

After Conference. He Announces That His Opposition Will be in Personal Capacity Only.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Representative Glander, Kitchen, Democratic leader of the house told President Wilson today after a long conference with him that he could not support the administration's program for national defense and that he would oppose the program in a personal capacity only and not as a majority leader.

Mr. Kitchen was with the president more than an hour during which Mr. Wilson outlined to him the army and navy plans for the next session of congress and for the next five years and sought to influence the majority leader to be in harmony with them. Mr. Kitchen stated his views frankly to the president directing his opposition chiefly to the naval program.

Mr. Kitchen said he thought it very probable that the majority would favor the defense program.

Representative Kitchen's definite announcement of his position will make it impossible for him to lead the fight for the administration's program in the house. The burden of the leadership will devolve probably upon Chairman Hay, of the military committee, chairman Padgett of the naval committee, Chairman Sherley of the fortifications committee and Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee.

MANUFACTURERS OF TOBACCO FORM AN ORGANIZATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 8.—Representatives of leading tobacco manufacturers and merchants in many cities met here today to organize the Tobacco Merchants' Association of the United States. The session is considered by tobacco dealers to be the most important gathering of the leaders of that industry ever held in this country. The capital stock represented is estimated at $1,500,000, and the annual business at 700,000,000.

The organization was suggested at a previous conference of independent tobacco men on a call issued by editors of tobacco journals. One of its chief purposes was declared to be to relieve the trade of the conflicts which have injured it for years.

National headquarters will be established in this city and active work will begin at once. Thirty men of national reputation in the tobacco trade have consented to serve as officers and directors of the association.

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

How many there are every night of the tired business girls who drag themselves wearily home at night with aching feet, nervous brains, and suffering bodies. They are far too tired to pay any attention to their personal appearance even, and many times too tired to take up duties for their person which might result in a very great added measure of beauty.

As tired as you are, as disinterested as you feel, try this method of refreshing yourself and you will be delighted at the result. If you have not time or cannot stand a cold bath, bathe the face and arms in hot water and then in icy cold, alternating several times. The feet, too, should be bathed in cold water with a sprinkling of salt. Many prefer to add half a cup of vinegar to the water when the feet are tired.

Lay aside your business dress and slip into something soft and frilly. Arrange your hair loosely. Put fresh stockings on the refreshed feet and a pair of soft slippers. You will be surprised at the invigorating change that has taken place. The constant practice of this habit will make it soon become a pleasure.

Instead of throwing yourself upon the bed and then appearing at the dinner or supper table with ink stained fingers and tousled hair, you will be an ornament to the family gathering, and a comfort to yourself and all others around you.

Your Boys and Girls

Care should be taken, when feeding the baby, that the milk does not flow too fast. By carefully holding the bottle so that the top of it is filled with milk, the flow will be prevented from sucking in air. One way of testing the nipple is to hold the bottle upside down, and if the milk drops, the hole is too large. It is wisest to buy nipples without holes, perforating them with a heated needle.

The influence of air and sunlight cannot be neglected in the nourishment of children. Fear is sometimes expressed lest the child taken into the air after feeding, should fall asleep. No better thing can happen to a child than to sleep in the open air, properly protected, in bright, clear weather. In cool weather the rays of the sun should be allowed to fall directly upon the child, only his face being protected.

Doane Smashes Through the Newark Line for 34 Points; Newark Protests One Ruling

Doane Academy's heavier football team smashed through the Newark defense Saturday afternoon, winning the game by a score of 34 to 0. Newark showed a much gamier spirit however, and the battered backfield stuck gamely to the fray until the latter part of the last quarter when De Freeze retired in favor of Taylor. De Freeze was suffering from a badly split lip received in a particularly vicious scrimmage in the third quarter. He continued to play after surgeons placed a strip of adhesive tape across his upper lip where he may sometime have a mustache.

Prof. O. J. Barnes, faculty head of the athletic department, notified the officials and both coaches that he would enter a protest against Doane's first touchdown which was the result of a fluke. Both officials blew their whistles, the referee sounding his signal because Newark was off side. The Newark players stopped immediately upon hearing the referee's signal, but McCullom, carrying the ball, continued on his way down the field without opposition from the Newark players.

Captain Jones protested against the touchdown to the officials but the umpire and referee maintained that Doane was entitled to the gain or penalty for Newark's off-side offense, and allowed the touchdown.

It was the opinion of football experts that the referee's whistle stopped the play entirely, and that after that signal sounded Doane's man had no right to the touchdown. Even if the referee made a mistake in sounding his whistle, Doane contended that on an outside play by Newark, the team had the option of taking the penalty or the gain and their captain chose the gain.

Newark's defense was strong in the first half. But one touchdown was made after the illegal point was scored. Newark had kept the ball well in the Doane territory where it was carried by a splendidly executed forward pass from Jones to Hendren. The pass went 25 yards and Hendren carried it 50 yards more. A shorter pass of 15 yards brought the ball to Doane's 15-yard line but Newark made the mistake of trying the same play again and the ball went out of bounds and Doane took the ball on the 20-yard line.

Newark soon intercepted a forward pass and kicked the ball out of the danger zone. McMahon carried the ball back 10 yards and a 25-yard pass from Griffith to Hopkins was carried fifty yards and across the goal by Hopkins. McCullom failed to kick goal and the half ended with the score 13 to 0. Time was called at the end of the second period with the ball on Newark's one yard line.

Early in the third period, after another ruling went against Newark, Quarterback De France called on De Freeze to carry the ball and when the scrimmage was over the sturdy fullback was bleeding profusely from a badly split lip and time was called while a surgeon patched him up. He returned to the game. A series of plays put McCullom in position to go over the line for another touchdown. Griffith counted out to McCullom, who kicked goal.

Soon after the ball was put into play again. Newark held Doane for downs. Jones took a short forward pass good for eight yards. Another forward pass was intercepted by Doane and soon afterwards Tomkins scored another touchdown and McCullom kicked goal.

Newark tried desperately for a goal from field after a Jones-Taylor pass netted 40 yards and placed the ball on Doane's 30-yard line. Badly battered and weary, Newark was unable to break up the forward pass from Griffith to Kull a few minutes later and Kull ran 50 yards for a touchdown, three Newark tackles failing to stop him. McCullom kicked goal, making the score 34 to 0. The game ended soon after the ball was put in play again. The lineup:

LINE SMASHING OF RUPP AND HICKMAN WINS

Denison Scores Two Touchdowns on Miami at Dayton Saturday, Winning 14 to 0.

Dayton, Nov. 8.—In a wonderful exhibition of football in all its phases, Denison defeated Miami Saturday 14 to 0. The game was replete with spectacular work by both teams. The first quarter was scoreless. In the second quarter, after a series of splendid dashes by Rupp, Hickman and Jenkins, Ladd received a forward pass from Thiele on the 20-yard line and throwing off five would-be tacklers, slid across the line for the first touchdown. He immediately kicked goal. Miami seemed to weaken at this point and Rupp and Hickman once more bucked the ball down the field steadily until the seven-yard line, when time was called for the half.

The third quarter was scoreless with honors about even. In the fourth quarter Rupp started another steady march toward Miami's goal, aided by the terrific line-smashing of Hickman and several Rupp-Thiele forward passes. Rupp carried the ball across on a line buck and Ladd kicked goal after the punt-out. The rest of the game was a series of futile forward passes by Miami in their desperate attempt to score.

Denison's victory was due primarily to the terrific line-smashing of Rupp and Hickman, the open field running of Rupp and Decker and the forward passes to Thiele. Miami was unable to gain consistently through Denison's line or around Denison's remarkable pair of ends—Thiele and Brock—who showed true championship form. Miami's heavy line was not shifty enough for the lighter but faster Denison line.

Honors of the game must go to Nelson Rupp, Denison's star half-back. He excelled in all departments and played the game of his life. He carried the ball more yards than any other player on the field and threw the forward pass with deadly accuracy. Hickman, the colored lad, was a close second at full, where he showed the greatest playing at that position seen for years on a Denison squad. Captain Ladd ran the team in faultless fashion and to his wonderful generalship is due much credit for a big Red victory.

Crawford, Pierce, Pruden and Lowry all played brilliantly, but Denison's stonewall defense was too much to permit them to gain consistently enough to score. Crawford furnished a great punting exhibition. Only once in the second half did Miami seriously threaten Denison's goal, when Ladd intercepted a forward pass on the 11-yard line. The lineup:

PYTHIAN SISTERS OF THIS DISTRICT MEET IN NEWARK

Mt. Vernon, Nov. 8.—The annual district convention of the Pythian Sisters closed here Friday night, after a successful meeting.

But one degree team, from the Johnstown temple, competed for the silver loving cup, and, by winning the contest this year, retains permanent possession of the cup, which it has now won three successive years. The Johnstown temple will provide a cup for competition next year.

At the business session in the afternoon it was decided to hold next year's convention at Newark. Mrs. Anna Schnaidt of Newark was nominated as trustee of the home at Medina, O., at this session, and the Centerville temple conducted the memorial services in a most impressive manner. At the evening session in the armory the past chief's degree was conferred upon a class.

The longest flagstaff produced in British Columbia is soon to be sent to Great Britain, as a gift from the provincial government, and it is planned to place it in the Kew botanical gardens a few miles out from London. The tree from which it was made was a perfect specimen of fir pine, and the staff, which is 215 feet in length, is without flaw.

Prof. Rollin D. Salisbury of the University of Chicago, says a continuous process of contraction is going on inside the earth, and will continue until all the chemicals within it have been transformed into the densest compounds millions of years hence. Earthquakes are a result of the contracting process.

RAILWAY OPENS NEW MARKETS

Completion of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway Means Much to Merchants and Manufacturers of the Central West.

The completion of the Elkhorn Extension of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway to a connection with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway at Elkhorn City, Ky., and the inauguration of a fast through-freight service between the Central West and Southeast, effective July 1, 1915, removed the handicap which has heretofore restricted the trade between these two prosperous sections. Close neighbors, geographically, the Central West and the Southeast have been almost strangers commercially, for the great Appalachian Mountain barrier had heretofore stood as an impassable obstacle to direct communication. The trade of the Carolinas and the Southeastern states, which has now been brought to our very door, for the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway gives us a quick-service short line directly through the mountains, reducing the time of freight by two days and giving our shippers an equal opportunity in the markets of the Southeastern states.

The new Railway also increases our opportunities for trade in the great Appalachian region through which it passes. The country is rich in natural resources—coal, hardwoods, iron, zinc, nickel, mica, kaolin, feldspar, limestone, marble, etc. Mines are being opened, factories are being built, agriculture, horticulture and stock-raising are stimulated and prospering. Towns and embryo cities are springing up like mushrooms. The products of the forest and mine offer our manufacturers a new and convenient source of supply for raw materials in exchange for our finished products. Merchants and manufacturers of the Central West will do well to personally investigate these new fields which are opened up by the completion of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway.

The road itself, extending from Elkhorn City, Ky., where connection is made with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, through Southwestern Virginia, Eastern Tennessee and Western North Carolina to Spartanburg, S. C., is a revelation in modern railway engineering and construction. With a maximum grade of 1.2 per cent, it is a mountain grade of four great mountain chains, the Cumberland, Clinch, Great Smoky and Blue Ridge, comprising the Appalachian System. The construction is of the highest standard known to modern railway science, involving 90 pound steel rails, a rock-ballasted roadbed and steel trestles with concrete piers.

The daylight ride from Elkhorn City to Spartanburg, a distance of 277 miles, has no competitor from a scenic standpoint in the Eastern half of the continent. The road follows the trail of Daniel Boone through the magnificent gorge of the Nolichucky River, approaches Mt. Mitchell, the tallest peak east of the Rockies, and works its way up the crest of the Blue Ridge mountain at Altapass, N. C., where a delightful resort hotel commands a view of the loftiest peaks and most spectacular scenery of the entire Appalachian System. The descent of the Southern slope of the Blue Ridge involves panoramas of bewildering beauty and grandeur as half a hundred mountain peaks, over a mile in height, pass in magnificent review before the astonished gaze of the traveler.

"A wonderful road through a wonderful country," is the exclamation of practically every one who for the first time travels over the Clinchfield from the upper Ohio Valley through the Appalachian Summitland to the Piedmont region of the Carolinas.

A hearty welcome awaits the manufacturer, the merchant, the capitalist and the home-seeker. Come see the country for yourself; study it first-hand and lay your plans for the conquest of its trade. Write today for descriptive literature including the scenic, resort, agricultural, horticultural, stock-raising, mining, and manufacturing features. Address Chas. T. Mandel, A. G. P. A., Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railway, Johnson City Tenn. (Adv.)

Now twilight lets her curtain down,
And pins it with a star.

$400,000 The Dow Drug Company 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock

Par Value Shares $100. Dividends $7 per share per annum, payable quarterly, JANUARY, APRIL, JULY and OCTOBER 1st

Capitalization Preferred Stock authorized and issued, $400,000
Common Stock authorized, $600,000; issued, $500,000

THE DOW DRUG COMPANY, an Ohio corporation, has purchased for cash the chain of retail drug stores and one wholesale drugstore formerly owned and operated by M. Cora Dow, and the several drugstores formerly owned and operated by The Weatherhead Drug Company, all in the City of Cincinnati.

THE PREFERRED STOCK is a first and prior lien against all assets, as well as net earnings, and the payment of dividends is cumulative. There is no indebtedness, nor can any mortgage debt or bond issue be created without consent of the owners of 75% of the authorized and outstanding issue of preferred stock.

The corporation starts business with ample cash in its treasury for working capital, and with which to open additional stores.

The COMMON STOCK has accruing to it all net profits, after deductions for depreciation and maintenance of the physical properties, and the payment of dividends on preferred stock.

The Underwriters, who have purchased the two concerns and provided the necessary cash working capital, have, as a result of the division of the capital stock, a considerable cash investment in the common stock, practically all of which they own.

The equity existing in the actual cash investment provides a wide margin of safety, over and above the total authorized issue of preferred stock, and fortifies the Common Stock with actual values behind it in addition to the valuable good will of the eminently successful concerns purchased.

Thankful for Relief Remedy Brought Her

Says Fruitola and Traxo Possesses
All the Merit That is Claimed for It.

After completing the necessary treatment, Mrs. S. S. Cole, Lampasas, Texas, was so well pleased with the results that she wrote the Pinus laboratories as follows: "Fruitola and Traxo are all you claim. It removed a quantity of gall stones and I feel sure it saved my life. I am well now and thankful to you for the great good your medicine has done me."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs and one dose is usually sufficient to clearly demonstrate its efficacy. It softens the congested masses, disintegrates the hardened particles that occasion so much suffering and expels the accumulated waste to the great relief of the patient. Following a dose of Fruitola, Traxo should be taken three or four times a day in order to rebuild and restore the system that has become weakened and run down from constant suffering. It is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach most beneficially.

Fruitola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill. and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Newark they can be obtained at T. J. Evans' Drug Store, Warden Hotel Block.

MANY A NIGHT CLARENCE LANE WALKED FLOOR

But Now Nerv-Worth Blesses Him
With Sleep Lasting "the Whole Night Through."

Another new Nerv-Worth endorsement from a well known home user. It has just come to Druggist Evans from Clarence Lane, of 124 South 16th street, this city. He had it:

"I have taken but one bottle of the wonderful Nerv-Worth and find that it has done me more good than anything else, including several doctors' medicines."

"I have suffered for a long time with that tired, aching, restless feeling, but am glad to say that I feel like a new person after taking only one bottle (of Nerv-Worth). My sleep has for a long time been broken up and I have had to get up three or four times in a single night and walk the floor, so that I could get back to sleep again."

"But in the past three weeks, (since taking Nerv-Worth) have slept the whole night through and feel refreshed and ready to do the day's work."

"Anyone can ask or write me regarding Nerv-Worth and I will be more than pleased to tell more about this reliable medicine."

"Respectfully yours,
"CLARENCE LANE."
If the offer in the last paragraph doesn't prove Mr. Lane's gratitude, grateful words are useless. Buy Nerv-Worth at Evans' Drug Store. Dollar back if you are not helped."

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is expensive and cannot injure; makes a delicious effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

We have been born to associate with our fellow men, and to join in community with the human race. — Cicero.

Thanksgiving Luck

Thanksgiving comes upon the trail
Of Autumn's russet gown,
And, never mind how much we rail
At price of turkey, pig or quail,
We'll eat our dinner without fail
And chuckle when it's down.

"ONE LONG, HAPPY, HEARTFELT SIGH."

Nobody ever counts the cost
Of chicken, pie or duck
When in Thanksgiving morning's frost
The appetite we thought we'd lost
Comes back, for only then we wish
We might have emptied every dish.
And even if the price was high
Our one long, happy, heartfelt sigh
Is for our great good luck.
—Lurana Sheldon in New York Times.

Thanksgiving day is a festival for elderly people. The movement on that day is toward the home where the father and mother, the grandfather and grandmother, live. It matters not if we have made a home for ourselves and if it be ever so happy, it is to the home of boyhood or girlhood that we turn on this day.

Thanksgiving's Uplift

Persons who are modern and ungrateful refuse to be preached to. They do not go to church on Thanksgiving day. They stay at home and read novels or newspapers and yawn and wish the shops were open or that some one would come in for a game of bridge, or perhaps they go to the matinee. But when the shadows fall there is no sense of serenity or of peace such as broods over a household where every member has received a spiritual uplift from the observance of a day of thanks.

That's why there ought to be an "old fashioned" Thanksgiving in every home where this paper is read.

The proclamation of our president each year demands that we give thanks not only as individuals, but as a people.

If you are dissatisfied with the result of the election you are probably saying, "Could anything be worse than the political situation this year?"

Well, there might be war or revolution. And the political situation isn't really affecting your comfort, is it? Then be thankful for peace.

Be thankful for plenty.

Be thankful for health.

Be thankful for friends and a home and the love of the dear ones in your home.

The Basis of Thankfulness.

The unqualified acceptance of life, with all its mystery and pain, all its labor and weariness and yet with all its sweetness and joy and all its latent potentiality—that is and forever must be the basis of true gratitude, the one great theme for thanks. Unless you are grateful for life itself you cannot be truly glad for anything that life contains. But being grateful for life itself adds a tinge of celestial glory to every simple blessing and makes today akin to the vast forever.

King Edward Liked Turkey.

The late King Edward VII. of England, traveling in America in 1890, conceived a liking for roasted turkey with oyster and chestnut dressing and with cranberry sauce and for Albenarle pippins and Baldwin apples. In after years, when he came into possession of Sandringham, he caused arrangements to be made by his steward whereunder those delicacies were forwarded from America at regular times.

"Think of your mercies, children," is a very good quotation to bear in mind whenever troubles threaten to overwhelm us, and really if you do think of your mercies you will surely find that the troubles and the mercies are about evenly balanced in most lifetimes, even though during their visitations we do not always think so.

HINTS FOR MAKING "COMFY" PILLOWS

Delightful Gifts Ranging From Balsam to Saddlebags.

ANY one farsighted enough to have gathered balsam buds the past summer can make her friends delightful Christmas presents by filling little cheesecloth bags with these fragrant thoughts and slipping them into embroidered covers of linen or silk. Our illustration also suggests an interesting idea for a workbasket. The pretty cretonne pattern of rose is bound with braid. The cretonne cushion is attached to the side of the basket so it can never be lost.

Sofa pillows of all kinds are the rage, as we know. Those of the art linens, white linen with the new solid flower embroidery; those of denims, with faces to be outlined coarsely upon them; the old fashioned cross stitch patterns and the pillows of art material are as pretty as the fourteen dollar beauties and far more acceptable to the ordinary person. None of them costs very much, and those of linen or denims may be bought three and four at a time and the material divided. The decorations may be different and no two alike. But the time and trouble of buying, no less than money, will be saved by this method. Sofa pillows offer a safe haven to the perplexed present maker. Feather pillows make delightful and novel cushions for sitting room and library lounges if prettily covered with saddlebags.

A PLUM PUDDING GIFT.

English Custom That is Becoming Popular in America.

A Christmas gift that is growing as popular here as in England is that of a plum pudding. It may be made at home and goes to its destination delightfully wrapped, though still in its mold, and tied with ribbons and holly. In England about 250 tons of plum puddings, averaging seven pounds each, are sent out each year. According to an old tradition, plum pudding should be at least "nine days old" before its eating. To make, put into a big bowl one cupful each of finely chopped suet, seeded raisins, cleaned currants and granulated sugar, three cupfuls of soft breadcrumbs and one each of shredded citron and orange peel. Add four eggs one by one, each being mixed thoroughly with the other ingredients before the next one is added. Next to follow are half a cupful of milk, one-quarter cupful of brandy (if there is no objection to its use), one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of mixed nutmeg, clove and allspice and the grated yellow rind of one lemon. Mix thoroughly, using the hands; then fill into a large buttered mold, leaving scarcely any room for it to swell. Tie a thickly greased and floured cloth or a piece of oiled paper over the top and fit on the cover as tight as possible. Put into a steamer or arrange some cords so that it may be suspended from the inside of the cover of the kettle in which it is boiled. The boiling water should reach up nearly to the height of the bowl. Boil seven hours steadily, taking care that no water boils into it and that the water is boiling when the pudding goes in and is never allowed to stop. On Christmas day it can be reheated in the mold in which it was made. When sending to the table stick a sprig of holly on the top, put a border of blanched split almonds around the edge and pour over the pudding a quarter cupful of brandy or rum to be set on fire just as it enters the dining room.

Plum Pudding Sauce.—Cook together a cupful of sugar and a quarter cupful of water until the sirup spins a thread. Beat the yolks of three eggs until lemon colored and thick and pour the hot sirup over them, beating all the time. Add a cupful of cream, one teaspoonful of lemon juice and two tablespoonfuls of brandy (if not objectionable); strain and serve immediately.

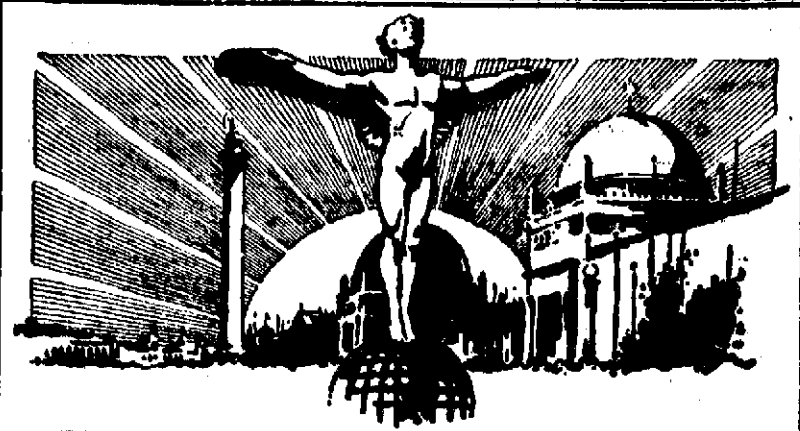

How a Siphon Acts.

The main principle of the siphon is the same as that of a suction pump—viz, that if a vacuum be created in a tube inserted in water the normal pressure of the atmosphere will cause the water to rise in the vacuum to a height of about thirty-three feet. The siphon is a bent tube, one side or leg of which is longer than the other, and the conditions of its successful operation are, first, that the shorter side or leg be placed in the water; second, the longer side or leg to hang freely over the edge of the vessel; third, a vacuum to be created throughout the length of the tube by sucking the air from the longer side. This will be immediately followed by a flow of water, which will continue as long as the mouth of the shorter side or leg of the tube remains under the surface of the water. In transferring water from a lower level care should be taken not to remove the short side from the water, as that would destroy the vacuum and cause the flow to stop.

Books.

For the greater part of its life a book is an article of furniture and stands upon the shelf to decorate the library with its patch of color and glow of kindly associations, but from time to time there occur those crises of its existence when it is taken down and read.—London Athenaeum.

Whenever a shell comes screaming in the direction of Polly, a pony now in the transport service at Gallipoli, she stretches out her forelegs, lets her head drop to the earth, closes her eyes, and is instantly "dead." Then when the shell has passed she rises again.

The most widespread disease in the world

The most widespread disease in the world today is that dread affliction of the teeth called pyorrhea. Nine out of every ten grown persons have it to some extent. You may have it and be unaware of it. Why? Because scientists have proved that the cause of this disease is a germ which inhabits every human mouth, and that thousands have this disease and do not realize it until it reaches the advanced stages of bleeding gums and loose teeth.

Accept the advice dentists everywhere are giving and take special precautions in your daily toilet against this disease. To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

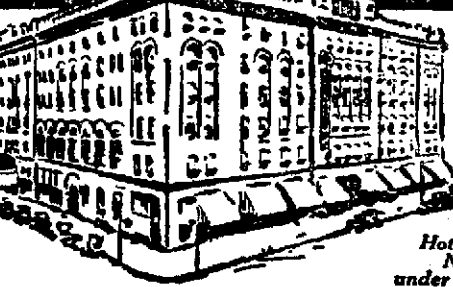

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Co., 507 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

MUSCULAR BACKACHE

The muscles of the back do the heavy work of the body. When they are overworked or ill nourished they ache and people who are looking for trouble begin to worry about their kidneys.

Backache may be due to lumbago, which is rheumatism of the muscles of the back, but more backaches are caused by overstrain, overwork and muscle starvation due to thin blood than by anything else.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and sufferers from backache would do well to try this treatment before giving way to worry over a fancied organ disease. Rest and the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will correct most forms of backache, even rheumatic.

For people who work too hard or read too much and sleep too little, better habits and a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all that are needed to drive away the pains and aches that are warnings of a coming breakdown.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "Nervous Disorders" will be sent free, if you are interested, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store or by mail at 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50.

co and after attending the exposition, will sail for China where he will visit for a year.

Hunting was Good.
 O. L. Lucas, driver of the Bazler ambulance, and Everett Stewart living east of the city, returned Sunday from Noble county after a hunting trip of several days. They brought back with them 105 rabbits.

Lucas says the hunting in Poverty Gap, Heather Ridge and on Whiskey Run, was fine though the dry weather prevented the best work from his pack of rabbit dogs. Noble county farmers see to it that no quail is killed and a hunter who ventured to violate this law would be in danger of lynching in that community.

SHERIFF SWANK
FILES A DIVORCE
PETITION TODAY

Sheriff Charles H. Swank by his attorneys Link C. Russell and Phil B. Smythe, this afternoon at 2 o'clock filed a petition in common pleas court, asking that he be divorced from his wife Elizabeth M. Swank.

In his petition Sheriff Swank makes the serious allegations that his wife has on numerous occasions, and with numerous persons, been unfaithful to him. He further alleges that this state of facts has been known to him for some time, but that owing to the official position which he held, he sought to keep the matter from becoming public. Sheriff Swank further alleges that of late the defendant has become bolder and has frequented public places, and the public streets in company with her paramours; that on last Saturday evening Sheriff Swank caught her arm in arm with a young man named James Wertz, a former inmate of the jail, in the Arcade Annex; that the encounter caused some excitement at the time, and that inasmuch as the defendant had commenced to make her liaisons public, and the facts could no longer be suppressed, the sheriff files this petition for divorce.

Mr. and Mrs. Swank were married in Dayton, O., in 1901, and are the parents of two children, a boy of 14 years and a daughter of 12.

The climax in the Swank affairs came Saturday evening about 8 o'clock when Sheriff Swank met his wife in company with young Wertz. The sheriff ordered his wife to return to their residence at the jail and Wertz started to interfere when Sheriff Swank struck at him, landing on his nose and causing the claret to fly. Wertz quickly left the scene. Mrs. Swank is said to have gone to her home in Montgomery county.

DECORATED CHINA
ALWAYS LIKED

Skill and Patience Well Expended on These Gifts.

THIS hand painted set, consisting of a watch case, comb, brush, mirror, powder box, jewel box, cream jar, buttonhook, nail polisher and tray, replaces the costume covered articles so popular last summer. They are painted in dainty greens and pale pinks and are highly suitable for a young girl's dressing table. Another pretty set was painted especially for a blue room in forget-me-nots. In both cases the china is set in gilt mounts.

Bead photograph frames are really charming bits of handwork which will make pleasant gifts for either men or women. These are more easily done on canvases than on a bead loom. They are in all the charming bead designs and in many shapes—square, rectangular, circular and shapes that are fanciful and elaborate. Forget-me-nots in blue beads on a crystal ground make a charming frame for the face of a woman friend which almost any man would appreciate. Roselunds on a dark red ground, golden love knots on a pink opaque bead ground, etc., are all most charming frames. The frames must be first cut in large squares or rectangles of canvas and then stenciled with the outline of the frame shape desired. After the beadwork is all done the inner portion of the canvas is cut out and folded under to make the shape. Before mounting the beadwork on the frame this should be interlined with felt or fannel.

affairs. Dainty, figured lawn, dotted swiss or stenciled organdie may be used if you wish to make a different one for each of your friends.

You can also make charming aprons for afternoon tea out of silk, linen, silk-aline, lace and ribbon, each apron having its dear little bib. "The woman's woman," with hosts of friends among her own sex, will hail these aprons with delight. Clever sewers will need no pattern by which to shape them. For the other women, who must measure and judge, one pattern will suffice for a hundred aprons.

Ways to Conceal Christmas Money.
 A box of marshmallows laid flat in one or more layers, each sweet holding a paper covered dime, will delight the juveniles and please even those who are not so youthful. (Giant Christmas cards, in which the sentiment is outlined in shiny new nickels or even gold coins; tin toy banks, cheap cups filled full of the "marmoset" (as some of our friends call cash), are all nifty-looking cash gift conveyers as well as authentic and festive Christmas gifts.

Y. W. C. A. WILL WORK IN BOMBAY.

The Y. W. C. A. in Bombay has its mission, according to a suit of three workers. Daily at 11 o'clock these workers go to some one of the fifteen mills and factories open to them for a meeting with employees.

Let us go with them for one day. Having passed the gates of the mill we ascend four flights of narrow, dirty stairs. We leave one worker here, where Mohammedan men and women work. On the next floor, we leave another worker with the Virathi-speaking Hindus. At last we come to those speaking Hindustani on the top floor.

The noise of the looms and the stirring air gave a sickening sense of confusion. We threaded our way through the thundering looms and bags of cotton and spools until we reach the center aisle. Here we stopped until discovered by one of the section superintendents. After we were seated on two huge spools, the roar grew less. I discovered the machines were slowly stopping. Our worker, Miss Demler, began to sing in Hindustani. One hymn followed another until the room was quite still. The women had stopped behind their looms to eat their noon-day meal of nuts, grains or fruits. By and by they came slipping into the circle about us. Strange groups these were, old, haggard, gray-haired women and anxious-faced girls, old beyond their years. Most of them were at the coolie class.

The noon rest is only a half hour. Most of them had been at work since seven. Many had risen early to cook food for their families before coming. It is no wonder that when the loom stops they be on the floor by it until the call to work drives them on again.

After the hymns came the Bible lesson. I discovered a group of men behind one of the machines listening. When the story of Christ feeding the multitude was finished, an old Hindu woman whom we had thought to be asleep, suddenly raised up and crept close and asked question after question, her hungry eyes fixed on Miss Demler. There was time to get the address of this woman and others and permission to go to their chawls (homes) was secured. From this mill we went to two factories where the same program was repeated. I estimate that four hundred listeners heard the good news that day. At first it was very difficult to get a hearing in most of the mills. Even after permission was granted by the owner the Bible women were often bitterly persecuted. This has gradually been overcome. For the last year the conservative report shows an estimate of 3,748 listeners in mills and factories, and 3,088 women and men seen in their chawls or homes.

An unreach part of the laboring class are being touched and he believe that God is blessing our efforts. During the past year a husband and wife and two girls have expressed the wish for baptism. As they were given in charge of their native pastor in instruction in their own language. They were baptized later and we took to them in a strong influence for Christ in their own community.

WILLIS

for the senatorial nomination, was not expected in a today.

Mr. Burton after his talk with Governor Willis said:

"I am much gratified, of course, at Mr. Willis' determination to run again for governor."

He declared to say definitely whether he would announce as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination until after today's parleys with leaders of the party.

"The position of president of the United States is too big and too dignified to be sought in as positive a manner as other offices," he explained.

Mr. Burton admitted that a multitude of his friends have importuned him to go after presidential honors, and that he was pleased at their attitude. He refused to give the substance of his talk with the governor other than to admit they had discussed plans for complete harmony, and "incidentally presidential possibilities."

Mr. Burton stated emphatically he was not here to "make deals for support" with any one. "I am not going to say to any person 'I'll help you if you'll help me,'" he added.

Chairman Edwin Jones, H. M. Daugherty of Columbus, of the state executive committee, Chairman W. L. Parmenter of the state central committee, former Congressman Ralph D. Cole, Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold, Public Utilities Commissioner Lawrence K. Langdon and Budget Commissioner E. M. Fullington held a conference this morning.

Efforts were made at this conference, it was said, to find a candidate for the United States senatorial nomination to succeed Senator Pomeroy next year, who can receive the united support of Republican leaders.

"This is my coming out," remarked the factious burglar, whose sentence had expired. "Permit me to wish you many happy returns," said the prison keeper gallantly.
